Conference information

The ACDD conference includes parallel and plenary hybrid sessions. Accepted papers will be presented in parallel sessions. Each presentation is limited to 20 minutes, followed by a 10-minute discussion with a senior discussant. Plenary sessions are scheduled during the two days with participation from invited keynote speakers.

Awards for best papers

Two "ACDD Best Paper Awards" will be granted during the ceremony at the Strasbourg's historical city hall on the final evening. The prize selection will be entrusted to members of the scientific advisory committee. We will consider only complete papers that are submitted within the deadline and that have not been published in any academic journal. Please note that nominees must be currently enrolled as Ph.D. students.

Fees

The registration fee is 100 Euros for on-site participants and 50 Euros for online participants. This sum covers participation, all-day refreshments, lunches, cocktails, the gala dinner and other activities.

Practical

To reduce the environmental footprint of the conference, we invite participants who can to travel by train. Food during the conference days will be locally sourced and vegetarian.

We look forward to seeing you in Strasbourg !
